Rahman "Apta Dhan Kabootar" from the movie "Vedam" is popular for its dialogues. This dialogue is related to pre-wedding rituals in South Indian marriages. In the film, the character Aachi is trying to persuade his parents to let him marry a girl who he loves so much. He tells them that marriage is not important and it's only a ceremony and no one can put a price on love. The conclusion of his line says: ' marriages are done by money, relationships are done by love. Love is the only money you will get. And that, my dear parents, is what I want to get.' - Aachi The movie was an instant hit and became a cult classic. "Hrim Kettavu" from the movie "Poovilangu Pattukaran" is also one of the most famous dialogues of all time. It had become a cult classic and probably some may know the quote by heart:
